School Public Accountability Report

BEST SPELLER IN THE REGION & 29TH IN THE NATION
GLENN MEDINA

School Public Accountability Report (SPAR), school grades, FCAT and Adequate Yearly Progress (AYP) reports: The School Public Accountability Report contains several types of data (indicators) designed to inform parents and the general public about the progress of Florida's public schools. This report meets the public reporting requirements of the federal No Child Left Behind (NCLB) Act and certain additional information of interest on the status of Florida's schools. In addition, the Florida Department of Education publishes school grades, the results of the Florida Comprehensive Assessment Tests (FCAT) and the Adequate Yearly Progress (AYP) of Florida schools. <http://www.broward.k12.fl.us/schoolimprove/DOereports.htm>

Parental Information and Resource Center

Parental Information and Resource Center (PIRC): Parental Information and Resource Centers (PIRCs) help implement successful and effective parental involvement policies, programs, and activities that lead to improvements in student academic achievement and that strengthen partnerships among parents, teachers, principals, administrators, and other school personnel in meeting the educational needs of children. <http://www.floridapartnership.usf.edu>
